

PLANNING YOUR NEXT EVENT

Dear Perspective Client,

Mountain View Catering has been the leader in Catering Services in Alamogordo since 2000. Located at Gerald Champion Regional Medical Center, our Catering team has over 60 years of experience. Whether you are looking for a simple dinner party with friends to a lavish reception, Mountain View Catering is ready serve you.

ServSafe Certified, Mountain View Catering is a great choice for those last minute deli trays or intricately planned meals. From small groups to parties over 1000 our culinary team is experienced to provide you and your guest with the finest quality and service you would expect from a caterer.

Featured in Food Service Director Magazine, our Pastry Chef, and graduate of the acclaimed Johnson and Wales University, can create that custom confectionary delight that you would only see in the finest restaurants. Recently we have introduced our line of specialty cakes ranging from simple sheet cakes to layered wedding cakes. Whether you are looking for that traditional layer cake or a more outrageous creation, consider Mountain View Catering for your next event.

We look forward to planning your next function and making that personal experience a memorable one.

Sincerely,

The Mountain View Catering Management Team
